

I believe BPS 101 is a district that really embraces the student. The community here is so proud of its schools and is supportive of its teachers, its administration in all efforts to support it's students. So to me, one of the greatest strengths of this place is how we wrap ourselves around the school's and the student's experience for BPS 101.